Kimberly McKay Human Resource Consultant

Background and Key Activities

Since graduating from Victoria University, Kimberly has over 20 years experience as an HR Manager and consultant. She has worked in the state sector, the Employers and Manufacturers Association, local government, the tertiary education sector and the private sector.

For much of her working life Kimberly has held senior management roles which have involved her in corporate strategic planning, budget and staff management, as well as specialist HR functions. She understands business imperatives.

For the last four years Kimberly has provided HR consultancy services to a range of clients in Hawke's Bay, around the country and internationally.

Kimberly is highly respected for her knowledge and problem-solving skills. Her ability to build trust and her sense of humour are strengths in difficult situations. She is focused on practical HR solutions tailored to suit the client's business.
